

UEN-TV Monthly Highlights - September 2017

Citizen Science

The Crowd & The Cloud

The Crowd & the Cloud

Mondays at 9 p.m. beginning September 4

By observing their environment, monitoring neighborhoods and collecting information about the world around them, citizens are helping professional scientists advance knowledge while speeding up new discoveries and innovations.

Not Without Us

Thursday, September 7 at 9 p.m.

Follow seven grassroots activists from around the world to the 21st U.N. Climate Talks in Paris.

Labyrinth Journeys

Friday, September 8 at 8 p.m.

In an age when consumers are clamoring for the latest smartphones, tablets and apps, many people are turning to a 4,000-year-old symbol and structure to find comfort and meaning in their lives: the labyrinth.

Osiris Rex: Countdown

Monday, September 11 at 8:30 p.m.

Follow a multi-generational team of scientists and engineers as they struggle to design, construct, and deliver on time the OSIRIS-REx spacecraft and its components to NASA in anticipation of its September 2016 launch from Cape Canaveral.

Arts

Mosaic: The Deep Eddy Mural Project

Sunday, September 3 at 7:30 p.m.

Viewers get a peek behind the curtain to understand what it takes to create of a truly monumental work of art, hardships and laughter included.

Arts in Context

Sundays at 7:30 p.m. beginning September 10

We hope to pique curiosity and inspire people to learn more about a subject, visit an exhibition, attend a performance or create and share something beautiful of their own.

Flory's Flame

Sunday, September 24 at 8 p.m.

As the sole surviving family member after World War II, Flory Jagoda's mission has been to continue her family's cultural legacy through their music.

Sweet Dillard

Saturday, September 30 at 9 p.m.

Follow the 2013-2014 school year of the Dillard Center for the Arts Jazz Ensemble and their inspirational band leader, Christopher Dorsey. The no-nonsense Dorsey lays down the law from the first beat, calling out his students' tendency to form into cliques of black and white, automatically inhabiting separate sides of the rehearsal room,

Hispanic Heritage Month

Austin Revealed: El Despertar

Thursday, September 21 at 9 p.m.

Explore the struggle of the Chicano movement as the Mexican-American community in Austin, TX unites to fight for quality education, equal representation and respect for their diverse culture.

La Frontera

Thursday, September 28 at 9 p.m.

From right-wing ranchers to cowboy poets to human-rights activists to fence / wall opponents, Mark J. Hains met a myriad of people along the way who were eager to discuss the balance between border security and immigration justice.

Beyond LaBomba

Saturday, September 30 at 8 p.m.

Mexico's 300-year-old Son jarocho tradition comes vividly to life. From the rural roots of Veracruz to the urban rhythms of the Midwest, a family of iconic musicians forges a new life but remain true to their music.

The Head of Joaquin Murreta

Saturday, September 30 at 8:30 p.m.

A filmmaker searches for the remains of legendary Mexican outlaw Joaquin Murrieta.