

UEN-TV Monthly Highlights - November 2018

History Programs

Voting Matters

Thursday, November 1 at 8 p.m.

One dynamic woman is fighting on the ground and in the courtroom to ensure that this universal right, the Voting Rights Act of 1965 is protected.

Shanghai 1937: Where World War II Began

Wednesday, November 14 at 9 p.m.

When did World War II begin? After what is called the "century of humiliation," including six years of repeated "incidents" initiated by the Japanese military, China at last "stood up."

Legacy in Stone

Wednesday, November 28 at 8 p.m.

Archeologists come together to demonstrate the art, science and skill of flint-knapping which created an exquisite 12,000 year old cache.

Moscone: A Legacy of Change

Wednesday, November 28 at 9 p.m.

This documentary chronicles the life of George Moscone, California legislator and mayor of San Francisco, whose life was cut tragically short by an assassin's bullet 40 years ago.

Veterans Day

Homecoming

Wednesday, November 7 at 8:30 p.m.

Veterans from different wars, as well as military experts and a psychologist, look at the impact of a homecoming on a soldier - even decades after he or she returns from war.

Polytrauma Rehab in the V.A.: Compassionate Care

Friday, November 9 at 8 p.m.

Hunter Holmes McGuire Veterans Administration Medical Center in Richmond, Virginia is one of five polytrauma centers. It provides physical recovery and rehabilitation, plus services for physical, mental, emotional and spiritual well-being to veterans and active service members.

A Time to Heal

Saturday, November 10 at 9 p.m.

Explore the impact of the Vietnam War on the lives of those who fought, protested, or prayed for their loved ones to come home alive.

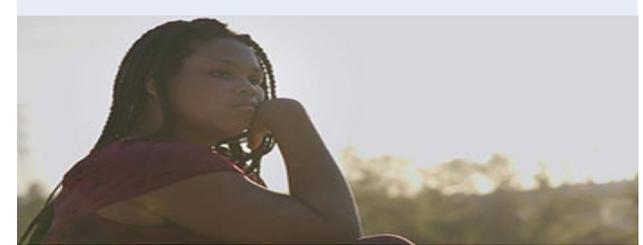

Music and Might: Above and Beyond the Call of Duty

Sunday, November 11 at 8 p.m.

Join us as we tell stories of selflessness, courage, friendship and faithfulness against all odds with music, song and historic imagery.

Family / Thanksgiving

Finding Home: A Foster Youth Story

Tuesday, November 6 at 9 p.m.

Four foster youths prepare for life outside the foster care system.

Fostering An Unconditional Love

Tuesday, November 13 at 8:30 p.m.

In the early 20th century, six relatively unknown painters - collectively known as the Taos Society of Artists - helped turn a small mountain village in New Mexico into the premier American art destination.

The First Official Thanksgiving

Saturday, November 17 at 8:30 p.m.

The film challenges the long-held belief that America's first Thanksgiving was held in Plymouth, Mass., and chronicles how the discovery of the Nibley papers led to a friendly rivalry between Virginia and Massachusetts about who can rightfully lay claim to the birth of America's Thanksgiving holiday.

Thank You for Coming

Tuesday, November 20 at 9 p.m.

Sara Lamm asks relatives near and far "What is family" after finding out at as an adult that she was conceived via sperm donor.