

UEN-TV Monthly Highlights - February 2019

Black History Month

George Washington Carver: An Uncommon Life

Saturday, February 2 at 8 p.m.

This documentary uncovers Carver's complexities and reveals the full impact of his life and work.

Unchained: Generational Trauma and Healing

Saturday, February 2 at 9 p.m.

Viewers face the roots of American racism and the processes that usher lasting reconciliation.

Dream Land: Little Rock's West 9th Street

Wednesday, February 6 at 8 p.m.

West 9th Street was once a vibrant district, learn of the history and view the present.

The Howard Thurman Story

Wednesday, February 6 at 9 p.m.

A chronicle of the extraordinary life of poet and "mystic," theologian Howard Thurman.

Afropop: An American Ascent

Saturday, February 9 at 8 p.m.

The first African-American expedition tackles Mt. McKinley, North America's highest peak.

Black History Month

Talking Black in America

Saturday, February 9 at 9 p.m.

A revelation of language as legacy, identity and triumph over adversity.

Karamu: 100 Years in the House

Sunday, February 10 at 8 p.m.

"Karamu" a Swahili word meaning "a place of joyful gatherings" is the name of the oldest African-American theater in the United States.

Redeeming Uncle Tom: the Josiah Henson Story

Wednesday, February 13 at 9 p.m.

The real-life inspiration for Uncle Tom in Harriet Beecher Stowe's classic 1852 novel.

American Story: Race Amity and Other Traditions

Saturday, February 16 at 9 p.m.

This moves the discourse from the "blame/grievance/rejection" cycle to a view from a different lens.

In Tune: The Ben Tucker Story

Sunday, February 17 at 8 p.m.

His passion for music and love of Savannah bridged a very wide racial gap.

Black History Month

Power to Heal: Medicare and the Civil Rights Revolution

Wednesday, February 20 at 9 p.m.

Grass-roots volunteers pressed to achieve justice and fairness for African Americans.

The Long View

Thursday, February 21 at 8 p.m.

Oakland creates lasting solutions to systemic inequities in the city's public school system.

Free: The Power of Performance

Saturday, February 23 at 9 p.m.

The Destiny Arts Center in Oakland, California, provides a place for teens to express themselves through dance.

Black Ballerina

Sunday, February 24 at 8 p.m.

Black women from different generations who fell in love with ballet is profiled.

Rising from the Rails: The Story of the Pullman Porter

Wednesday, February 27 at 9 p.m.

In the struggle for African American self-sufficiency, the Pullman Porters inspired future generations of black leaders and descendants.