

UEN-TV Monthly Highlights - November 2019

New Programs

Ms. Scientist

Monday, November 4 at 8:30 p.m.

Canada is trying to get female scientists to stay in the fields of science and progress to the top. The film delves into their lives and examines the obstacles that are hindering their success.

Voice of America: Lowell Thomas and the Rise of Broadcast News

Wednesday, November 6 at 8 p.m.

Although you may not know his name - if you watch, listen to, or download the news these days, you are benefiting from the pioneering work of Lowell Thomas.

Designers of the Dance

Sunday, November 17 at 8 p.m.

With stops at the American Ballet Theatre, the Bolshoi Ballet, the San Francisco Ballet and the Royal Ballet, the film reveals the inspiration of how choreographers and dancers work together to bring ballets to life.

Rooted in Peace

Thursday, November 21 at 9 p.m.

Today we are at war within ourselves, with our environment and with the world and it's up to each of us to make peace with ourselves and our planet.

American Indian Heritage

Metal Road

Saturday, November 2 at 8 p.m.

For decades, thousands of Navajos worked the railroads, maintaining the trans-continental network. Metal Road explores the dynamics of livelihood, family and the railroads through the lens of a Navajo trackman.

And Now We Rise: A Portrait of Samuel Johns

Sunday, November 3 at 8 p.m.

Samuel Johns, a young Athabaskan hip hop artist, founder of the Forget Me Not Facebook Group for displaced people in Alaska and activist for a cultural renaissance as he heals from his own legacy of historical trauma is featured.

Warrior Women

Saturday, November 16 at 9 p.m.

American Indian Movement activists, Lakota leaders, Madonna Thunder Hawk and her daughter Marcy Gilbert are profiled.

Walking in Two Worlds

Saturday, November 30 at 8 p.m.

The Tongass is rich with old-growth trees, salmon-filled rivers and wildlife. Alaska's Tlingit and Haida Indian tribes have depended on this forest for their culture and survival.

Veterans Day

The Wall's Embrace

Thursday, November 7 at 8 p.m.

A documentary narrated by Jimmy Buffett about the significance of the Vietnam Veterans Memorial and its enduring power to heal.

The 2-Sides Project

Thursday, November 7 at 9 p.m.

Over 11 days in December 2015, American and Vietnamese sons and daughters who had all lost fathers on opposite sides of the war held the first-ever formal meetings.

The Washington National Cathedral Veterans Day Tribute

Sunday, November 10 at 8 p.m.

The program is combination of live entertainment and pre-produced packages about the concerns, experiences and successes of veterans.

Military Family Documentary: While Time Stands Still

Thursday, November 28 at 9 p.m.

While Time Stands Still is the first film to chronicle the lives of military families during wartime and depicts the impact war has on families.

