

UEN-TV Highlights - November

TV for Thinkers

Art & History

United We Dance November 7 at 8 p.m.

Reflect on awe-inspiring ballet performances with the world's foremost dancers and artistic directors.

The First Official Thanksgiving November 25 at 8 p.m.

Discover what some historians consider the first English-speaking Thanksgiving held in the Americas.

Challah Rising in the Desert: The Jews of New Mexico November 27 at 9 p.m.

Celebrate the culture of a unique Jewish community which braids together diverse strands of history.

Satoyama Kitchen Diary November 30 at 8 p.m.

Savor the food culture of Hida Takayama, Japan, where the seasons guide menus and locally sourced ingredients reduce waste.

Native American Heritage

We're Still Here November 15 at 8 p.m.

Join First Nation indigenous hip-hop artists as they work with schools and communities to address social injustice, heal trauma and preserve their cultures.

First Language: The Race to Save Cherokee November 17 at 8 p.m.

Learn how the Eastern Band of Cherokee Indians is working to carry their language and culture into the future.

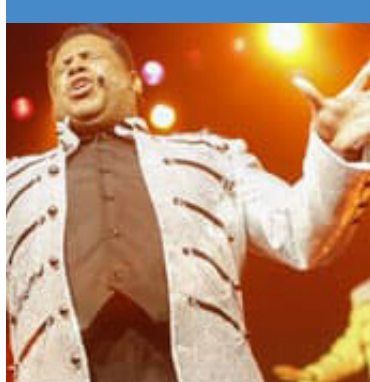

Breath of Life: Revitalizing California Languages November 18 at 8 p.m.

Meet a group committed to revitalizing their tribal languages and rich cultural legacies before it's too late.

A Thousand Voices November 25 at 9 p.m.

Discover the truth in the proverb "It takes a thousand voices to tell a single story" as Native American women from more than a dozen communities in New Mexico share their stories.

Honoring Resilience

Trauma to Triumph: The Rise of the Entrepreneur November 2 at 9 p.m.

Get inspired by the perseverance of entrepreneurs who overcame harsh trials to take charge of their destinies.

NHK – Tokyo Black Hole: Year Zero in Post WWII Japan November 3 at 9 p.m.

Travel from modern Japan back to "Year Zero" of post-war Tokyo to discover how many people survived in the aftermath of war.

This Light of Mine November 21 at 8 p.m.

Get swept away by the story of the Westcoast Black Theatre Troupe as it navigates the hardships of 2020 to safely fulfill its mission.

Big Dreams in Umatilla November 22 at 8 p.m.

Find out how a robotics team united a town and taught children they could reach for the stars.